"Our Town" in Bloom

In this week when our floral displays are assessed we are grateful for all who fill our place with beautiful flowers.

CHURCH PAINTING

Work has been proceeding very well. The most demanding part of the work – the stripping and replacing of fire-resistant varnishing is nearly completed

In the interim - a small oratory is located in the Parish centre where the Blessed Sacrament reposes.

PAPER STAND is available in the Foyer

BOOKING ANNIVERSARY MASSES

Please book at Parish office 028 9447 2103

CLEANING TEAMS

Just when you thought you had the summer off could we ask if you would kindly help with some light cleaning in the Parish Centre main hall while it serves as our parish church. Your help would be appreciated particularly after Saturday evening and Sunday morning Mass to spend ten to fifteen minutes to help collect leaflets, litter, perhaps sweep the floor, check the altar (stage) etc. (cleaning store is beside the kitchen).
 The Parish Centre will be open during the day also if you want to drop in then. So instead of your normal section of the chapel if you could try to do something on your team's scheduled week as below.

Summer Teams are:

W/c 29th July & 26th Aug:	Team 4
W/c 5 th Aug:	Team 1
W/c 12 th Aug:	Team 2
W/c 19 th Aug:	Team 3

CAR PARKING

The Parish Centre has limited spaces. Please GIVE PRIORITY to those whose mobility is impaired. The main church carpark is still available.

Finance Committee Minutes

The curate presented an account for wine!
 It was noted by committee members that this was the first time the Treasurer was asked to pay for wine and the usual practice in such a case is to refer it to the PP for his adjudication before coming to any decision on the matter.
