Cemetery Sunday There was a most impressive turn-out last Sunday, with people taking meticulous interest and pride in themselves and tidying up the graves and saying a prayer for loved ones.

A prayerful act of solidarity between the living - and our deceased friends and relatives.

Out of respect for these relatives and to preserve the sacred character of the environs parishioners are asked to refrain from exercising dogs in the church grounds. There has been frequent distress to people visiting the graves of loved ones caused by 'visiting cards' being left by canine friends.
